

Local government and public policies

The administration of public policies at the local level is the responsibility of the local government. Local government follows European and national policies and takes into account organization, budgeting and inter-municipal cooperation. The course will examine the policies: Local development, environment, transport, employment, energy.